Valuable Family Medicines.

JUST received direct from the proprietors, the following valuable Medicines, all of which have been in use for a number of years past, in almost every part of the United States; have been highly patronized by people of the first respectability; and approved by those who have had occasion to make use of them, for the cure of those disorders, for which they are severally calculated.

Dr. Lee's Genuine (Windham) Bilious Pills,

Universally known and used throughout the United States as a Family Medicine. The fame of these pills has become so great that many have attempted to counterfeit them—to guard against this, the proprietors have procured a Stereotype Label, and each box of Genuine Lee's Pills will hereafter be enclosed in one of these labels, with these words on the sides: "Lee's Genuine Windham Billious Pills," and on the end of the Label the words, "Samuel Lee, patentee, &c. I. Thompson, agent, joint proprietor," &c. and should any be offered for sale without said Label on them, the purchaser may be apprised that they are counterfeit.

Dr. Thompson's Celebrated Eye-Water:

For the cure of inflamed and sore eyes of almost every description. This valuable preparation comes highly recommended from the most respectable sources. Price 50 and 25 cents a bottle.

Dr. Rawson's Genuine Itch Ointment:

A certain and safe cure for that disagreeable complaint, as well as other irruptions of the skin. Price 37½ cents a box.

Dr. Rawson's Anti-Bilious and Stomachic Bitters,

For weakly and infirm constitutions. Price 37½ cents a box.

Hinckley's Infallible Remedy for the Piles,

A most valuable medicine. Price 50 cents a box.

Specific Drops for the Tooth Ache,

Which in almost every case, gives instant relief, in that distressing complaint. Price 37½ cents a bottle.

Cooley's Vegetable Elixir, for Coughs, Asthmas, Consumptions, &c.

A very valuable medicine in those complaints. Price 50 cents a bottle.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 14, 1819.

From the N. York Mer. Advertiser, April 9.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

By the packet ship James Monroe, capt. Watkinson, from Liverpool, which arrived below on Wednesday evening, we have received papers to the 1st of March, on which day the ship sailed. They are, however, utterly barren of news, and we cannot find an article of intelligence worth extracting. The stocks had fallen: 3 per cent consols 26th Feb. were at 75—omnium 2 1-8 discount.

The ship Manhattan, Macy, arrived at Liverpool 27th February from this port in 34 days. A ship was to sail for this port on the 5th, and the Martha, Sketchly, for do. on the 10th March.

The commercial advices are of the most gloomy nature. New failures were occurring, and with an overstocked market, business was extremely dull. The following is an extract of a circular, from Messrs. Cropper, Benson & Co.

Liverpool, March 1.

One of the cotton dealers who was the most eager purchasers in the early part of the month became early last week unexpectedly, and then unaccountably as pressing a re-seller—any price that could be got was taken, and as he seemed a determined seller to a large extent, the prices in this way were driven down rapidly, more especially Brazil cotton; Maranham was reduced in the course of the week fr. 13d a 19d to 17 a 17½d; Pernambuco, fr. 2o a 20½d to 19 a 19½d; and Uplands from 15 a 15½d to 14¾d a 15d per pound. The holders in general did not press sales at the same reduction, still the market for the time was in reality completely lowered to these rates; it now appears the extensive operations of this one house (all for prompt payment) were in anticipation of and to be prepared for the effects of a heavy failure here, and which became public on the 25th; this stoppage the first of any magnitude here, may, in its different ramifications, have a most injurious effect on many in the cotton trade; some houses in London connected with this branch of business, and some in Manchester will be involved in it, and it is difficult to foresee how far its influence may extend. The market of course, after such occurrences is still rather unsettled, there are no pressing sellers of American cottons, but still we can scarcely say that the prices are supported; Uplands may be quoted from 14 to 16d. N. Orleans 15 a 17d; Sea-Islands 2s 4d a 2s 10d, pretty good may be bought at 2s 5d a 2s 6d. N. Orleans at present rate higher than usual in comparison with Uplands, but when the new crop comes more freely forward they will probably not continue so. East India cotton has not of late fallen so much as other descriptions, but yet it is still looking down: Bengal, duty paid, may be quoted from 6½ a 8½; Surat from 7d a 11d.

Our supplies of cotton from America have not for some weeks been of much extent, otherwise in addition to the other prevailing depressing circumstances, the prices of American cottons would probably have gone lower, but from the Brazils and from India, especially from the latter, our supplies continue large, and from America also there may soon be expected a considerable import. The total supply of cotton into the kingdom now amounts to upwards of 112,000 bags, of which 28,000 bags are from America, and 55,000 from India.

Ashes.—The demand of late has been extremely dull, and the holders latterly having become more anxious to sell, the prices have undergone a considerable reduction; N. York cannot be quoted at more than 49 a 52s per cwt; pearls are equally dull and also lower, 56 a 57s per cwt would now be accepted.

Rice.—With the exception of the sale of one parcel of new rice at 34s 6d per cwt. for export, nothing has been done in this article.

Quercitron Bark is become exceedingly dull again, and some sales have been made by auction at low rates. No sales of sewing flaxseed have yet been made; 5l. 5s. per hhd is asked, probably 95 a 100s would be given; if the shipments from America be small, prices in Ireland this season will probaly rule high; staves have fallen considerably, and do not sell now very freely.

Our grain market, so far from advancing in consequence of our ports closing, have, partaking of the dullness which seems to pervade every thing, been of late declining; the demand from the interior has, with occasional intermission, been on the whole considerable, yet there has been such a general disposition to meet it freely, that the prices of all kinds of grain are lower; American flour is but little inquired for, 45 a 48s per bbl. may be quoted, and for fine fresh Baltimore and Philadelphia 49s a 50s are occasionally obtained in retail sales to private families. Indian corn in consequence of considerable arrivals has fallen to 4s a 4s 3d per bushel, at the former price some sales have been made for shipment to the West Indies, but for home use the demand for it is as yet of no great extent; rye is rather on the decline again, and for some American lately imported 43s a 44s per quarter would be taken. Aggregate average of wheat for the six weeks preceeding the 15th ultimo, 77s 7d; average return for the first week of the present quarter, 78s 11d.

An unusual degree of dullness prevails in almost every description of produce at present; such appears to be the case also with every market in the kingdom, and the continent of Europe seems to be similarly affected; it no doubt arises, in part, from the agitation of the question regarding the state of the currency of this country, and from the diminished discounts of the Bank of England, and the country banks; but its origin may be traced, perhaps in a still greater degree to the check which the spirit for over-trading is now receiving, and to the restriction which the mass of floating fictitious capital engendered by it, is now undergoing in its circulation. To whatever cause however, it may be ascribed, it is certain that the scarcity of money has seldom been more severely and extensively felt; the numerous failures, also, more particularly in London, excite great distrust among commercial men, and it is to be feared that before a more wholesome state of things is restored much embarrasment and distress may yet be experienced.

London, Feb. 25.

The French papers of Friday, contain no intelligence of any importance. General Sarrazin, against whom a charge of bigamy had been brought by an English lady, named Hutchinson, whom he had married, having a French wife alive at the time, had appealed to the highest court of Law in France to quash the proceedings; but the court has decided against him, and he is to be tried forthwith by the court of Assize.

London, Feb. 27. Evening.

The funds continue to fall; never was there so heavy a market for money. They have been done at 73¾ for money. The opinion of a loan still prevails strongly and depresses the funds. The narrowing of the discounts at the Bank also compels many peremptory sales at whatever loss.

Half past one.

Stocks have been done at less than 73 for money; and exchequer bills have been at 15s discount

There was a considerable fall in the price of bullion yesterday. Gold fell 1s 6d per oz. and silver 2½d.

In the house of commons on Thursday night several petitions were presented, praying for protecting duties on the importation.

The estimates of the army services for the year 1819, have been printed by order of the house of commons. The total charge is stated at 6,582,802*l* 12s 3d which is nearly the amount of the whole surplus of the annual revenue, after payment of the interest of the national debt.

Boston, April 8.

Arrived below yesterday, brig Wanderer of Boston, William Kempton, commander, after a distressing and long passage of 81 days from Cadiz to Boston—cargo salt, &c. Passengers, Albert A. Stickney, late master of the brig Swan of Newburyport, and one man (Edward Cook) put on beard by the consul.

Extract from the log book.—Friday, Jan. 15th, left Cadiz with a strong favorable breeze from s. e. fine weather, &c—nothing material occurred for several days. On the 23d, passed in sight of Madeira—fine breeze and pleasant weather until the 8th of Feb. being in lat. 32, 25, n. long. by calculation 41, 45, w. commenced a series of continual gales from n. to s. w. our brig labored hard and leaking more than usual—on the 9th, carried away the larboard maintopmast back stays, and discovered the head of the main mast badly sprung—got top gallant masts, yards and rigging on deck—strong gales and rough irregular sea—hove too under balanced reefed trysail, the leak increasing—on the 17th, split the mainsail and foretopsail, a continual succession of gales, with not more than 4 hours moderate in 24, attended with heavy rain, squalls, the pump continually going. On the 21st, strong gales and tremendous sea, the wind from the sd. and wd. with incessant rain, thunder and lightning, the brig under balanced reefed trysail, and the sea washing fore and aft. March 3d, begins strong gales from s. w.—at 2 P. M. shipped a very heavy sea that stove, and carried away the stern boat and greater part of our quarter boards—our leak increasing so much that one pump will scarcely keep her free—find her laboring extremely hard, straining in every part—on examining find our salt decreasing very fast, her upper works apparently all open—(generally speaking, we get an indifferent observation once in 4 or 5 days.) In the course of the past gales we have carried away 3 pair of shrouds and the topmast back stays fore and aft, and split most of our sails. March 10th, heavy gales from the wd. we lying to, shipped a heavy sea which stove the hencoops and camboose house, drew the ring bolts from the decks and carried the camboose to leeward—meridian shipped another sea that threw the long boat nearly overboard, the weather extremely cold and 3 of our number confined (by sickness) below; the rest nearly beat out in consequence of our provisions getting short, and our bodies continually drenched with the sea and rain, our allowance daily reduced scarcely sufficient to support nature—gale continues with tremendous sea. On the 26th, spoke ship Fanny, of and bound to New-York, from Liverpool, but the gale so heavy could not board her to get supplies. On the 29th, in lat. by calculation 43, 30, long. 65, commenced heavy gales from n. w. with snow and sleet, which shortly covered our decks and rigging with ice, we lying too the sea making a fair breach over us, and freezing as it were every drop—at 3 P. M. spoke English schr Margaret, of and bound to Halifax, from Jamiaca; the gale so strong could scarcely understand what they said.—March 30th, gales continue, and sea if possible, increases—4 P. M. shipped a tremendous sea that carried away the fore channels and did much other damage; we then by great exertion got up a purchase, and partially secured our tottering mast—we being nearly exhausted by continual pumping, and provisions all but expended—the mate and most of the people are very much frozen, and all of us have our limbs much swelled, by being constantly wet—our suffering vessel with her distressed crew appearing at times exposed on the merciless ocean for the sport of the elements, but an all-wise and benevolent being still guarded and protected us—thus we continued until the 3d of April, when our prospects seemed the most gloomy, we having scarce any thing to eat or drink—at 4 A. M. it appeared a little more moderate, but very heavy sea, and the skies portending another storm, when, to our unspeakable joy at 7 A. M. the sea subsided, the dark gloomy clouds sunk below the horizon, and the sun (which we had not seen for many days,) appeared unusually bright, shedding a genial warmth on our half famished bodies, and to add to our joy we discovered a sail direct ahead standing towards us, which eventually proved a friendly vessel sent by our kind protector for our relief—Meridian, being in lat. 42, 14, n long. 67, w. with fine pleasant weather, spoke and boarded the schnr Only-Son, of Kingston, (Mass.) James Fuller, master, 9 days from Norfolk, and 3 from Martha's Vineyard, bound to Halifax, on a trading voyage, who kindly supplied us with every necessary to make us comfortable, and expressed great satisfaction in so doing; he mentioned that he regretted our unfortunate situation, but felt as happy in affording us supplies as we were to receive them. We feel under great obligations to him and his company for their kindness and attention; in short, the joyous sensations occasioned by being relieved from almost a state of starvation, and the truly melancholy event that shortly occurred, has left an impression we trust time will not efface.

Soon after our boat left the schooner she began to make sail, when we perceived by the motions on board that some one was lost overboard, which proved to be the mate Mr. Charles Perkins, of Plymouth, (Mass.) a man of respectable standing, and an ornament to society. Every attempt was made to save him, but without success.—April 5, made Boston Light; 6th, anchored.

The crew are most of them much injured by being frozen. Yesterday hands were procured to assist in bringing the vessel up.

[Repertory.

Norfolk, April 9,

FIRE! FIRE! FIRE!!!

We have indeed a painful duty to perform—to record, as well as the confusion incident to such an event will permit, a calamity which has plunged a large and respectable portion of our population in deep distress, and cast a gloom over our society, rendered the more awful by the unprecedented difficulties of the times. Nor are the sensations produced by this shocking occurrence, at all mitigated by the reflection that a prudent forecast, which should mark the affairs of all well organized communities, might have averted this evil from us. But, reserving for another occasion, further comment upon the improvident character of our Citizens, who in drawing the curtain of oblivion over their severest disasters, neglect the necessary precautions against their recurrence, we will enter on the melancholy recital.

A postscript in yesterday morning's Beacon, will have apprised our distant readers that just as our paper was preparing for press, about 10 o'clock on Wednesday night, the appalling cry of fire called us to the scene of one of the most distressing conflagrations we have ever witnessed. Upon reaching Market-Square, we discovered a considerable volume of flame issuing from the rear of the house on Main Street, usually known as Rourk's Hotel, which we have since ascertained to have originated either in the kitchen of Dr. Martin's house or that of Mr. Werckmuller, adjoining the Hotel. The wind which at this time was from the S. E. and gentle, increased with the progress of the flames, and shifting gradually to the South, in the course of an hour the whole row of frame buildings, from Mr. George White's China ware-house to Mr. Willock's Brick Building in front, and in rear, down to the Creek, became one heap of ruins.

Several of the intermediate houses on Main street being blown up, with a view to check the progress of the fire, it was hoped that its fury would have been so far arrested by the brick wall of Mr. Willock's house as to enable the engine to get it under. But the scarcity of water and the very combustible materials of the houses in the back lane, permitted it to get the ascendancy, and scarcely was one part of Mr. Willock's house blown up, when the flames communicated to the other, and in succession to all the houses on the right hand side of Talbot's street to the creek, every one of which with the exception of Mr. Joseph Vanholt's fire proof house, fell a prey to the devouring element.

From 10 o'clock until 3, Main-street and Market Square presented a most affecting spectacle, of men women and children, transporting the wreck of their property of every description, to the houses of their neighbors and friends—Parents seeking an asylum for themselves and their children, who alarmed at the horrors of the scene, clung to every one they passed, imploring their protection.

At one time Main-street and Market square, were almost impeded with the quantity of goods and furniture, which was carried out or thrown from the windows. Several of the houses on the south side of Main-street, from Loyal's Lane to Talbot street, took fire from the intensity of the heat, which caused nearly all the sashes to burst, but were soon extinguished by the active exertions of some sailors, who seemed infinitely more interested in the preservation of the property than many of our citizens, who appeared perfectly satisfied, walking to and fro, with their hands in their pockets, without offering to participate their laudable exertions in behalf of the sufferers.

At 4 o'clock, the fire having been sufficiently checked, a guard was posted, and most of the citizens retired to rest.

A number of persons were injured, several severely, by the explosion of some of the houses.

The amount of property destroyed, is estimated at about One Hundred Thousand Dollars, viz: the Houses, &c. at 70,000, and moveables at 30,000. Much of the property, we learn, is insured in the Virginia, New-York, and Phœnix (Eng.) Companies, but we have not been able to ascertain the amount insured. The number of houses burnt is estimated at upwards of one hundred, forty-seven of which were family residences.

The following is a list of the Houses destroyed, with the names of the owners and occupants:

A few days ago (says the Baltimore American) we noticed the publication of a pamphlet by General Scott, containing the correspondence between himself and General Jackson, in consequence of an anonymous letter received by the latter. In the explanatory remarks made by Gen. Scott in his pamphlet he attributes the letter to De Witt Clinton, present governor of New-York. This accusation has called from Mr. Clinton the following reply:—

TO THE PUBLIC.

General Scott of the army of the United States, having in a letter of the 2d January 1818, to General Jackson, insinuated, that I had written, dictated or instigated an anonymous letter to the latter gentleman, from unworthy motives, and for improper purposes—and having also concealed this imputation from me, untill the publication of a pamphlet which reached me on the 4th inst. I have considered it proper to declare, that I have had no agency or participation in writing, dictating or instigating any anoymous letter whatever to Gen. Jackson—that I am entirely ignorant of the author—and that the intimation of General Scott is totally and unqualifiedly false, to all intents, and in all respects. This declaration is made from motives of respect for public opinion, and not from any regard for General Scott, whose conduct on this occasion, is such a total departure from honor and propriety, as to render him unworthy the notice of a man who has any respect for himself.

It is not probable that I can at this time have any recollection of having had the honor of seeing general Scott, on the 9th of June, 1817—at a dinner in New-York, or the topics of conversation as he suggests—circumstances so unimportant are not apt to be impressed on the memory. But I feel a confident persuasion, that I did not make use of any expressions incompatible with the high respect which I entertain for General Jackson.

DE WITT CLINTON.

Albany, 6th April, 1819.

ANOTHER MAIL ROBBER.

For ten days past, the Wilkesbarre and Easton Mails have come to this office with letters taken from them, and after a detention on the road for some days. Some Mails from Wilkesbarre, had not been received. This led to a suspicion that the Robbery must have been at some of the offices between this place and Easton.

I accordingly mentioned the subject to Mr. Bailey, agent for the General Post Office, with a request that he would proceed on that route to ascertain where the roguery was committed. On his first journey he discovered it to be on this side of Doylstown, and on his second journey (yesterday) he was so fortunate as to detect the person.

It is not thought proper at this time to communicate to the public more fully on this subject. It is requested, however, that those persons, who within a fortnight past, have sent letters by mail, containing money from Easton or Wilkesbarre, will advise the Post Master at Philadelphia, of the same.

RICHARD BACHE, P. M.

Philadelphia, April 8, 1819.

On Monday night last, (says the Augusta Chronicle, March 31,) between 12 and 1 o'clock, the gaol in this place was broke open, and seven prisoners made their escape. They were confined on the second floor, and effected their enlargement by the boring with a large auger through the third floor, and dropping down from the window by twisted blankets. The night was dark and stormy, which considerably favored their exertions. Fortunately, however, as the last fellow was descending, he made a noise that awakened the gaoler, who immediately rose and pursued the fugitives. The pursuit was kept up with unremitted activity until about 9 o'clock A. M. when five of the seven were apprehended, and once more inducted into office with the usual ceremonies.

The remaining two that have not yet been heard from, call their names P. Reyneau, and Andrew Lowry Freeman. Reyneau is a Frenchman, and was committed to gaol a few days since, for picking a gentleman's pocket in this place—he had recently arrived from Savannah, and is supposed to be quite an adept in the light fingered science. When detected in picking the gentleman's pocket, he endeavored to explain it away as "von letel bagatelle—dat he only vant to teach American gentlemon von lesson—dat ven he get a leetle fright he vould give him back his book, and tell him 'tis very bad to wear his pockate outsede de coat." He is about 5 feet, 10 or 11 inches high, of a dark complexion with black hair and eyes. He had on a black close bodied coat, and a brown surtout. Andrew Lowry Freeman, sometimes calling himself Andrew Lowry, was committed about two months ago for robbing the Franklin mail. He is spare made, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, black hair and eyes—he wore a brown surtout, and grey corduroy pantaloons.

Notice.

WAS committed to Fairfax county jail by warrant from under the hand and seal of George Mason, esq.

Negro Edmond, as a runaway. The negro, on examination, says he was formerly the property of William Johnson, of Gloucester county, Virginia, and sold by said Johnson to some negro trader, the man's name he knows not. Edmond is about 21 years old, 5 feet 4 inches high, strong and well made—his cloathing an old mixed country pair of pantaloons, an old roundabout jacket, and an old wool hat. The owner, if any, is requested to come forward, prove his property, pay charges and take him away, otherwise he will be dealt with according to law.

Blacking for Boots & Shoes,

Superior to any ever offered to the public.

ROBERT COCHRAN,

No. 48, North Fourth-street, next door to the Green Tree Inn, Philadelphia.

WITH confidence offers to the public, his superior Portable and Liquid blacking, so much admired and approved of, which is manufactured by himself only.

This blacking possesses every desirable quality, being of an oily nature, it preserves the leather perfectly soft to the last, and keeps it from cracking—it is a jet black, affords a most superlative polish, entirely free from any offensive smell, and so clean as not to soil the whitest muslin or any other substance it may chance to run against, and will keep in any climate—it has a peculiar advantage in being put up in a portable manner, and may be packed without possibility of risque, with the nicest clothes or goods. The Portable Blacking is muchadapted for gentleman residing or travelling in the country, where materials for making Blacking is not to had, and as for cheapness and elegance, far exceeds any ever imported or manufactured in the union. Where is sold as above, the beautiful Chinese Liquid Blacking, for ladies morocco boots and shoes, which makes the oldest morocco boots or shoes appear the same as when new. Sold wholesale at the manufactory, as above.

N. B. Please observe that each bottle it sealed and signed by the proprietor, to prevent spurious impressions being imposed on the public.

It may be had at the following places in Alexandria.——Dr. Stabler and Richard Woods on Fairfax street,—Dr. Semmes, & Dr. Little's apothecary shops, on King-street.—Isaac Entwisles, shoe factory, and Thomas Mount's factory & Hardware store on King-street. sw2m March 20

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pobick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pobick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE subscriber is desirous of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence.—The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutricious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow.—it would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NOBLET HERBERT, esq. or Vaccine Institution.

THE small pox having appeared in Alexandria, such persons as have been vaccinated by the subscriber are invited to attend at his office, on St. Asaph-street, between Prince and Duke streets, to have their arms examined. Indigent persons are also invited to the same place for the purpose of being vaccinated. The subscriber will attend at his office every day in the week except Sunday, from 7 o'clock until 10 in the morning, for the purpose of receiving them.

He proposes also to be less particular than heretofore in the investigation of their claims to the benefit of the institution, as may respect their indigence and length of residence in town. The subscriber earnestly requests all such citizens as may be acquainted with persons liable to contagion, to send them without delay as above directed, where they will be served effectually and gratuitously.
